MOTION AND AGREED ORDER TO CONTINUE MOTIONS

COMES NOW the Commonwealth by her assistant attorney general, James R. Herring and Defendant, by Counsel, and moves this honorable court to continue certain motions filed by the Defendant

In support of said motion, the Commonwealth states that the Defendant filed motions with said court on March 2, 2023. The Commonwealth and the Defendant wish to continue the following motions to March 22, 2023; "Defendant's Notice and Motion for Bill of Particulars," "Defendant's Notice and Motion for Release of Court Funds for Defense Investigation and Expert Assistance," and "Defendant's Notice and Motion to Release Sealed Records."

These motions' present novel issues before this Court. The Commonwealth wishes more time to research these novel issues, and file responses with the Court. The Commonwealth and Defendant already have a pre-trial motion day scheduled for March 22, 2023, at 1:00 PM. That would give the Commonwealth sufficient time to respond to these motions.

The Commonwealth and Defense still intend on the Court hearing the motion to continue on March 10, 2023, at 9:00 AM.

And it appearing that this is an agreed motion by the Defense and Commonwealth, it is hereby ADJUDGED, ORDERED, AND DECREED that the above motions filed in CR22-1683-00, CR22-1684-00, CR22-1685-00 shall be removed from the docket on March 10, 2023 at 9 00 AM, and placed on the March 22, 2023 docket at 1 00 PM The Defendant is already recognized to appear on that date.

DEFENDANT'S NOTICE AND MOTION FOR RELEASE OF COURT FUNDS FOR DEFENSE INVESTIGATION AND EXPERT ASSISTANCE

THE CLERK will please take notice that on the 10th day of March, 2023 at 9:00 a.m., or as soon thereafter counsel may be heard, the defendant, by Counsel, will move this Honorable Court for an order authorizing state funds for the payment of defense experts and defense investigation. In support hereof the defendant submits:

- 1) Michele White has been charged with 2 felonies and 1 misdemeanor relating to her employment as the General Registrar of Prince William County.
- 2) One Commonwealth allegation is that Ms. White altered the election results within the state reporting system, VERIS, and that her alterations resulted in the false reporting of the election results from Prince William County.
- 3) The best evidence of the election results are the election records from the November 2020 election that are currently held under seal by the Clerk of the Circuit Court for Prince William County. The Clerk's office has confirmed their continued preservation of those records and defense has by separate motion requested the release of those sealed records.

- 4) In the event that such records are unsealed for defense inspection, the defense intends to perform an audit of the records, to count the votes for the presidential election for November 2020.
- 5) Prince William County is currently served by Eric Olsen as the General Registrar of Prince William County. Mr. Olsen is a witness for the Commonwealth in the prosecution of Ms. White.
- 6) The defense requested that Mr. Olsen's office perform the audit of the election records for the purpose of performing a hand count of the November 2020 presidential election results.
- 7) Mr. Olsen has confirmed his office's ability to perform such a task, and has estimated the expense as 45 cents per ballot, for a total estimated cost of $103,000.00.
- 8) The defense is seeking court funds to cover the cost of Mr. Olsen's office in performing a hand count of the November 2020 presidential election.
- 9) The defense is also seeking access to three cell phones in order to extract meta data from pictures that are material evidence in the Commonwealth's prosecution of Ms. White.
- 10) The defense is seeking court funds in the amount of $11,000 to retain the services of Sensei Enterprises to create a digital copy of the phones, analyze the contents thereof, advise counsel on digital forensic evidence, and if appropriate, to testify at trial.

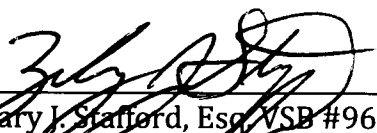

11) Ms. White does not have the funds necessary to pay for the above investigation and expert consultation. Ms. White is entirely reliant on the charity of others in order to cover these exorbitant expenses.

12) The above expenses are necessary for the preparation of a defense for Ms. White and she is seeking court funds in order to pay for these services.

WHEREFORE the defendant moves this Honorable Court to release court funds for expert assistance and defense investigation.

DEFENDANT'S NOTICE AND MOTION TO RELEASE SEALED RECORDS

THE CLERK will please take notice that on the 10th day of March, 2023, at 9:00 a.m., or as soon thereafter counsel may be heard, the defendant will move this Honorable Court pursuant to Virginia Code § 24.2-669 to allow the defendant to copy and inspect all the November 3, 2020 election records held under seal by the Circuit Court Clerk's Office. In support hereof the defendant submits:

- 1) The Commonwealth intends to present evidence that the defendant altered the election results during the November 3, 2020 presidential election.
- 2) The best evidence of the election results is the original ballots and election returns held by the clerk of court in Prince William County.
- 3) The Commonwealth provided the defense with a discovery letter indicating there are 94 returns from the election that are held by the registrar's office that are available for inspection by the defense. These records are a copy of a portion of the records held by the Clerk's office.
- 4) On February 3, 2023 undersigned counsel attempted to inspect and copy the election returns held by the Registrar but the Commonwealth objected to the removal of any staples during inspection for the purpose of making copies by the defense. The election returns are voluminous and filled with data. They are impossible to review with Ms. White without making a copy.

- 5) On February 3, 2023 the Commonwealth also advised the Registrar that they object to the Registrar's fulfillment of any FOIA request for the election returns on the grounds that the documents are evidence in an ongoing criminal investigation. The Registrar advised that he has already made a copy of the election returns based on at least one prior FOIA request.
- 6) § 24.2-669 permits the clerk to release the sealed election records upon a court order when the ballots are necessary as evidence in a pending proceeding.
- 7) Here the ballots are the best evidence of the election results that the Commonwealth intends to present copies thereof as evidence against the defendant.

WHEREFORE the defendant moves this Honorable Court to order the clerk of court to unseal the ballots and election returns for the 2020 election for the defense to inspect and copy.

- 1) The indictment in this matter does not provide enough information for undersigned counsel to identify with particularity the criminal conduct alleged by the Commonwealth in each of the three indictments.
- 2) The defendant is charged with three criminal offenses for her conduct as registrar of Prince William County.
- 3) The scope of responsibilities encompassed by the Registrar combined with the breadth of conduct that could fall within the purview of §24.2-1001 or §24.2-1016 violations, creates boundless avenues for prosecution of these charges and requires the defense to prepare for everything within the universe of Registrar responsibilities.

- 4) The Commonwealth has provided discovery and oral explanation of their case theories; however the Commonwealth is not limited to these theories, and the defendant is unable to rely on oral representations by the Commonwealth.
- 5) Discovery under rule 3A:11 has not clarified the nature and circumstances of the offense for which Ms. White has been charged, it has only broadened the potential conduct for which Ms. White may be required to defend herself.

WHEREFORE the defendant moves this Honorable Court to direct the Commonwealth to file a bill of particulars in this matter.

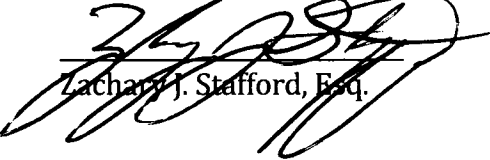

Respectfully submitted,

MICHELE WHITE

DEFENDANT’S NOTICE AND MOTION FOR CONTINUANCE

THE CLERK will please take notice that on the 10th day of March, 2023, at 9:00 a.m., or as soon thereafter counsel may be heard, the defendant will move this Honorable Court to continue the pre-trial hearing date and trial date in this matter. In support hereof the defendant submits:

- 1) The defendant needs additional time to prepare her defense and agrees to toll speedy trial for the duration of the continuance. The Commonwealth agrees to the defendant’s continuance request.
- 2) The defendant is seeking a continuance of at least 6 months to prepare her defense and is requesting the trial duration be extended from 3 days, to 10 days.
- 3) The defendant has received discovery from the Commonwealth and pursuant to that discovery, the defendant submit the following pleadings in addition to this motion to continue:
 - a. Motion to Release Sealed Records
 - b. Motion for Bill of Particulars
 - c. Motion for the Release of Court Funds.

- 4) The defense also expects to receive additional records via subpoena duces tecum and requests made under the Virginia Freedom of Information Act. defense expects the above investigation to result in the production or access to hundreds of boxes of paper records, the inspection of which will require a significant amount of time for the defense to review.
- 5) Additionally, based on the scope of evidence provided in discovery, and the scope of defense investigation in response to those records, the defense believes a 10-day time estimate is a more accurate prediction for the length of this trial.

WHEREFORE the defendant moves this Honorable Court to continue the pre-trial hearing date, and trial date in this matter.

3. To permit the accused to inspect, review, and copy or photograph designated books, papers, documents, tangible objects, recordings, buildings or places, or copies or portions thereof, that are known by the Commonwealth's attorney to be within the possession, custody, or control of the Commonwealth, upon a showing that the items sought may be material to preparation of the accused's defense and that the request is reasonable.

4. To permit the accused to inspect or review the accused's prior criminal record, if any, as is within the possession, custody, or control of the Commonwealth, the existence of which is known, or by the exercise of due diligence may become known to the attorney for the Commonwealth.

B. Special Provisions

1. Confidential Informants: This Order does not authorize the discovery of the names and/or personal identifying information of confidential informants whom the Commonwealth does not intend to call at trial and with regard to whose identity the Commonwealth asserts it holds a privilege. Notwithstanding, the Court may order that the identity of the informant be disclosed upon a showing by the defendant that such disclosure is relevant and helpful to the defense of the accused.

2. Work Product: This Order does not authorize the discovery or inspection of the work product of the Commonwealth's Attorney, including internal reports, witness statements, memoranda, correspondence, legal research or other internal documents prepared by the Office of the Commonwealth's Attorney or its agents in anticipation of trial.

II. DISCOVERY OBLIGATIONS OF THE DEFENDANT

A. The Defendant is HEREBY ORDERED to provide the following discovery to the Commonwealth's Attorney no later than Sixty (60) days before trial:

1. To permit the Commonwealth to inspect and copy or photograph any written reports of autopsy examinations, ballistic tests, fingerprint analyses, handwriting analyses, blood, urine and breath analyses, and other scientific testing with the accused's possession, custody or control that the defense intends to proffer or introduce into evidence at trial or sentencing.

2. To disclose to the Commonwealth whether the accused intends to introduce evidence to establish an alibi and, if so, disclose to the Commonwealth the place at which the accused claims to have been at the time the alleged offense was committed.

B. Special Provisions:

1. Defense Objection to Redaction: If the Commonwealth redacts personal identifying information with regard to any material or evidence provided pursuant to this Order and as authorized by VA Rule 3A 11(c), the accused may file a motion seeking disclosure of the redacted information. Should the Court find good cause for disclosure, it may order the Commonwealth to provide the redacted information, or in its discretion, may

The accused's attorney may orally communicate the content of "RDM" to the accused or allow the accused to view the content of such material but shall not provide the accused with copies of material so designated "RDM" may not otherwise be reproduced, copied or disseminated in any way. Furthermore, within Twenty-One (21) days of the entry of a final order by the trial court, or upon the termination of the representation of the accused, the accused's attorney shall return to the Court all originals and copies of any "RDM" disclosed pursuant to this Order. The Court shall maintain such "RDM" under seal. Any material sealed pursuant to this subsection shall remain available for inspection by counsel of record. For good cause shown, the Court may enter an order allowing additional access to the sealed material as the court in its discretion deems appropriate.

b. 1. Notice Requirements: If the Commonwealth's Attorney and/or the Defendant intends to introduce expert opinion testimony at trial or sentencing, the party seeking to introduce such expert testimony shall provide, no later than Sixty (60) days before the trial date, written notice of such intent to the opposing party and shall provide such opposing party with:

- b. the witness's qualifications and contact information.

2 Exception for Certificates of Analysis Pursuant to VA Rule 3A 11, providing the opposing party with a copy of a certificate of analysis from the Virginia Department of Forensic Science or any other agency listed in Virginia Code §19 2-187 signed by hand or by electronic means by the person performing the analysis or examination, shall satisfy the requirements of this Order.

3 Exception for Rebuttal Experts If a party intends to introduce expert opinion testimony at trial or sentencing which is in response to an expert that has been noticed by the opposing party in compliance with this Order, then the party seeking to introduce such rebuttal expert testimony shall provide to the opposing party these written disclosure requirements listed hereinabove no later than Thirty (30) days before the trial date.

4 Admissibility Nothing in this Order shall render inadmissible an expert witness's testimony at the trial or sentencing further explaining the opinions, bases and reasons disclosed pursuant to this Order or the expert witness's qualifications, just because the further explanatory language was not included in the notice and disclosure provided under this Order. All matters of admissibility shall be within the sound discretion of the court.

No later than Thirty (30) days before the trial date, each party shall provide the opposing party with a list of the names and, if known to the party seeking to call the person as a witness, the addresses of all persons who are expected to testify on behalf of that party at trial or sentencing. For the Commonwealth, this requirement is subject to any redactions as permitted by VA Rule 3A 11 (c)(1), and for both parties, this requirement is subject to any Protective Order(s) as entered pursuant to VA Rule 3A 11(g).

IV. GENERAL PROVISIONS

1. If after the entry of this Order, the accused at any point thereafter is permitted by this Court to proceed with his/her case pro se, the Commonwealth may file a motion with this Court to amend this Order seeking to limit the scope of discovery as the Court deems appropriate.

2. The Commonwealth shall abide by all constitutional and statutory duties of the Commonwealth's Attorney to provide exculpatory and/or impeachment evidence to the accused.

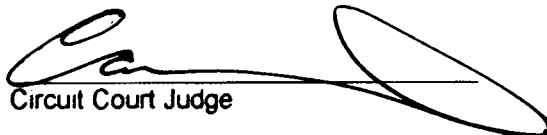

3. A party to this Order may satisfy the requirement to permit the opposing party to inspect and copy or photograph a document, recorded statement or recorded confession by providing an actual duplicate, facsimile or copy of the document.

4 Any material or evidence disclosed or discovered pursuant to this Order and filed with the Clerk of Court shall be placed under seal until it is either admitted as an exhibit at a trial or hearing or the Court enters an order unsealing the specified material or evidence

5 Upon the motion of either party and for good cause this Court may enter a Protective Order in accordance with VA Rule 3A 11(g) with regard to the discovery or inspection required by this Order and in its discretion may order any condition that it deems necessary to the orderly adjudication of the case or to the fair administration of justice

6 That this Order is continuing in nature as set forth in VA Rule 3A 11(h) Both parties shall exercise due diligence to comply with their respective discovery obligations within the timeframes as proscribed by this Order However, for good cause shown or upon a material change in circumstances, either party may move the Court to amend or modify the discovery deadlines as initially set forth by this Order Furthermore, if at any time before or during trial a party discovers the existence of additional material that is subject to discovery under this Order, but which has not been previously disclosed to the opposing party that party shall promptly notify the opposing party of the existence of the additional material If at any time during the pendency of the case it is brought to the attention of the Court that a party has failed to comply with VA Rule 3A 11 or with this Order the Court shall order such party to permit the discovery or inspection of materials not previously disclosed and may grant such other relief authorized by Virginia law as it may in its discretion deem appropriate.

NOTICE

You are charged with an offense(s) that, upon conviction, could result in your being SENTENCED TO INCARCERATION. You have the right to a reasonable opportunity to obtain a lawyer, but you are not required to have one.

If you want a lawyer and cannot afford one, you may ask the Court to appoint a lawyer to represent you. To obtain a court-appointed lawyer, you must apply to: Prince William Circuit Court, Room 310 at least 30 days prior to trial. The telephone number and operating hours of this office are: 8:30 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. - 703-792-6025

ACKNOWLEDGMENT BY DEFENDANT

- I understand that I have the right to hire a lawyer of my own choosing to represent me.
- I understand that I have the right to represent myself without a lawyer.
- I understand that if I appear for trial without having hired a lawyer or without having asked for a court-appointed lawyer, and do not have a sufficient reason, then I may be considered to have waived my right to the assistance of a lawyer and my case may proceed to trial.
- I understand that I will be held to the same rules of procedure and evidence whether or not I have a lawyer.

I understand that my ^{my next} trial date is 10/21 at 9:00 ✓
date time

I understand that if I fail to appear on my trial date or any later date to which this case is continued, I may be tried in my absence and a Capias for my arrest may be issued.

I understand these rights to be represented by a lawyer. I understand the manner in which a lawyer can be of assistance and I understand that, if I proceed without a lawyer, I may be confronted with complicated legal issues.

I understand that if I am not a citizen of the United States and if I plead guilty or I am found to be guilty, there may be consequences of deportation, exclusion from admission into the United States, or denial of naturalization pursuant to the laws of the United States.

I also understand that I may waive (give up) my rights to be represented by a lawyer.

I have read and understand this notice and I have received a copy of it.
